QUI S QUE DAT OPTIMUM

Peanut

Foreword

In this, the fortieth volume of THE PEANUT, we have the honor of presenting the seal of Suffolk High School. This splendid emblem was drawn up by a school-minded student in the spring of 1942 and has since been declared one of the most beautiful in the state. We hope that in the years to come you may look back with pride on this symbol, of all that Suffolk High stands for, all that she means to us, all that she has given us; the lamp of learning, the cross of spiritual development, the crown of leadership. You may remember with pleasure the part that you played in her development when you see, shining above the shield, the star of progress, whose five points indicate the ways in which Suffolk High strives to grow: socially, morally, spiritually, mentally, and physically. The circumscribed wreath, tied with the knot of friendship, is of oak, representing strength; and laurel, victory in these five fields of progress. The battles fought to surpass the obstacles standing in the way of victory are portrayed by the torn mantle around the shield.

Between the covers of this PEANUT we have tried to include all the activities which have carried out the ideals expressed in the seal. Along with this record six seniors, selected by their class as most outstanding, are the theme of this—"Quisque Dat Optimum."

Dedication

A friendly smile, a gay laugh, and a heart abounding with joy are only a few of the characteristics that make her dear to every student in Suffolk High.

Almost any time during the day you can walk into the office and find a smiling face eager to help you. With pencil and pad in her hand, taking dictation from Mr. Helmer or Mr. Jones or at the typewriter typing daily announcements, she still finds time to teach a shorthand class.

We, the Peanut staff, dedicate with pride and pleasure, this Thirty-sixth Volume of The Peanut to Mrs. Anne Norfleet, our teacher and friend.

A high-contrast, black and white photograph showing the silhouette of a person standing in front of a large window. The person is facing away from the viewer, looking out at a landscape that includes trees and possibly a body of water. The window has a grid pattern of frames. The overall mood is contemplative and dramatic.

Student Senate

President, Alan Jubenville

For the year 1957-58, something new has been added to Suffolk High School. A new class called "The Leadership Class" has been formed in which all Student Senate representatives are members. This class meets every other week, alternating with the Ways and Means Committee, during 6th period. Once a week Miss Bell teaches the students parliamentary procedure which has proved to be very helpful in presiding over meetings. Alan Jubenville leads the Senate as president, with Alice White serving as vice president and Emily Sue Judkins, secretary.

Shop

It's never hard to find our shop teacher, Mr. Kilby, hard at work teaching our boys how to construct many things like the gun rack in this picture.

Art

Yes, this is one of the most popular classes in school. It is because of the fine sweet way Mrs. Perts helps her art students in learning to draw the right way.

Library

Although she is extremely small, it is never hard to find Mrs. Dixon hard at work in the library. Here we find her helping Penny Gray with her senior parallel. Just remember, she is never too busy to give a helping hand.

Audio Visual

It is not at all unusual to find Mrs. Burton and Eddie Sutphin hard at work checking in films during first period. This is among the many tasks that she does for all the students in Suffolk High.

Driver Training

Mr. White always tries to explain to his students that there is more to driving a car than just pushing on the gas peddle. Here Mr. White points out a few parts of the Driver Training car.

feelly Guidance

"Pat, I think you have decided on a fine college." Yes, Pat is one of many students that Miss Bell, guidance director, helps in planning their college careers.

Who's this? Why it's the cheerleaders as they pose in front of our school, "the home of the Red Raiders."

Everyone could hear the cheerleaders in the Oyster Bowl Parade as they rode down Granby Street on the Shriners fire engine.

Team In Action For 1957

Newport News Downs Raiders

Friday night, October 18, Suffolk's Red Raiders traveled to Newport News for their sixth game of the '57 season.

Sixty-fourers seemed to put up a good fight. Typhoon's Leslie Matthews, Jim Keller, and Jerry Odom again punched the ball back late in the game. Ke. LESLIE MATTHEWS led "boots" to the goal for the first point. Jack Tesh, Typhoon fullback went around his left end for the extra point.

An interception pass set up Newport News' second touchdown. Two plays later, Keller passed to Hallie in Marshall for the score. At that point was wide as the sea.

Eight plays later, Mathews, on his own, took the ball and New Suffolk's to the four. Marshall went in. A point was wide as the sea.

As the second quarter had new life, the Red Raiders had new life. Newport News until the quarter when Tesh ran for 53 yards. Jimmy Sled the line for the and the game 27-0.

After driving to the 20, the ball was thrown for a seven-yard loss. On the next play the Toucher attempt was put down when Wilson intercepted a Raiders pass.

The entire Suffolk defensive team played good ball by stopping all of Wilson offensive attacks.

Suffolk Ties Wilson In Mud, 0-0

The Red Raiders, determined to play as good a game against Wilson as in past years, took the field Friday night November 8, and did even a little better than that by tying the Presidents 0-0.

In a washed field, neither team could get going on the mud. Of the five total possessions were interceptions. The wet ball could

What has all this got to do with this football season? Well, the above mentioned people were in the minority group, and this year the majority began either to run them aside, convert them, or take over again. In which, but we lost the Suffolk of spirit during this, the best I've ever seen. Parents and students people for and instead terrible them cheering each other. They won to fit.

Suffolk-0 Prince Edward-13

The "second half platters" held the Cavaliers to a second half, but could not win their two first-half totals. The Raiders showed tremendous improvement in this defeat.

Suffolk-13 Churchland-13

Entering the game as three-touchdown underdogs, the Raiders played to the best of their ability, and with Leslie Matthews and Jerry Draper scoring, put on a treat display for the 12th annual Peanut Bowl.

Suffolk-0 Wilson-0

In a "mudbowl" at Peanut Park, the Raiders played amazingly to tie the three to four-touchdown favored Wilson, eliminating them from the Group I title race.

Suffolk-12 Great Bridge-6

GOOD LUCK CLASS OF 1958

Patsy

Well, another year has come to an end ~~so~~ and we are about <sup>Compliments of</sup> summer vacation, but I want to tell you now it certainly has been fun being friends with <sup>Compliments of</sup> TRAVELERS LAKESIDE PHARMACY
you. I feel that we really didn't begin to know each other until this year, but I think that in this time, an inseparable friendship has been started, and I think that it is one that will last for a long time.

It's really been nice, to having someone to help him with Geometry and settling our many problems." I hope that you and Joe go on going together and being one of our steady <sup>Compliments of</sup> couples." I wish you the best of luck in everything you do
